

“Old Vine” Zinfandel

2 0 0 8
New Release

WINEMAKER NOTES

The 2008 “Old Vine” Zinfandel has dark color, classic Amador aromas of holiday spices, cedar and cocoa. Rich flavors of dried currants, pomegranate and chocolate. A distinctive Zinfandel from over a dozen of Amador County’s oldest and most venerable vineyards, with an average age of at least 45 years.

TECHNICAL DATA

Bottled: September 2010
Production: 5,300 cases
Appellation: Amador County
Alcohol: 15.5%
pH: 3.57
TA: 0.60g/100 ml
RS: .04
Aged: 15 months in 17% new American oak, 83% 2 & 3-year-old American and French oak

KEY SELLING POINTS

- From over a dozen of Amador County’s oldest, most venerable vineyards
- Zinfandel Vines of an average age of 45 years
- Small production: only 5,300 cases produced
- Awards & Accolades: Platinum Medal at the San Diego Wine Competition, Double Gold from the Tasters Guild Competition, Gold Medals at the California State Fair and the West Coast Wine Competition, Silver Medal at the Los Angeles International Wine & Spirits Competition
- Great Value / Quality ratio
- Unique Terroir: soil, climate, elevation
- State of the Art Winery and Vineyards
- Hand crafted wines, hand-picked fruit, small fermentors, temperature controlled fermentation in small lots, barrel aging in French and American oak